 about the things we want and how we can get them. I've

 we need and how we can have them. I've been thinking about the things we can do and how we can make a difference. I've been thinking about the things we can't do and how we can live with that. I've been thinking about

Story in Diary

If I say a word how my life was, sometimes I was un happy, at other times I was happy. They say life is but an empty dream,
But I was grateful to be alive.

Morning chill, a breeze that flows right before bloom, smell of glowy sunset, not a single day wasn't bright to me.

You, in misery,

Once you are born in this world, you deserve these whole things.
Even though there are thousands of trivial days, your life is worth living.
Don't spoil your today because of regretful past and unsure future.

Make the most of your day.

You deserve it.

To the mother and father of child.

To the siblings.

To daughters and sons

To you, Once I was...
